FIFTEEN CENTS

ROTARY TOURS GRADE SCHOOL — Antioch Rotary members, led by Al Little, Vern (Barney) Barnstable and Marilyn Shineflug, from the Lakes Region Historical Society, toured Antioch Grade School which is in process of being renovated into area historical museum.

Museum plans on go

Rotary to join in renovation

by GLORIA DAVIS

According to Al Little, president of the Lake Region Historical Society, plans to continue the renovation of the old Antioch Grade School into an historical museum are set to go full blast in 1984.

In December, the Antioch Rotary Club, guided by Little, Vern (Barney) Barnstable and Marilyn Shineflug, historical society officers, took a tour of the school.

On Jan. 5, Little sat down with the restoration committee to discuss 1984's renovation agenda.

On the restoration committee are Walt Shepard, Barnstable, Warren Polley, Richard Harland, Skip Whitten and Don Rasmussen.

The next step will be to go through the school, room by room, and list everything needed to be done in each room.

One of the biggest decisions that is pending will be whether or not to stay with the central heating that is presently in the building or go to the zone heating plan which was recommended by the Illinois Energy Commission.

In any case the old furnace will be replaced.

"We intend to put the new gutters on as soon as the weather breaks now that the new roof is complete," said Little.

The committee will be busy taking bids from local heating, electrical and plumbing contractors as soon as the work list is complete.

The list and cost estimates will be presented to the Rotary on completion. The club is expected to decide then what projects it will undertake.

Meanwhile, the membership committee has sent out membership forms to all Antioch, Antioch Township and Lake Villa residents.

"Our membership has increased by 25 percent in the last three months," said Little enthusiastically.

Little is now in the process of completing a list of all the clubs and businesses that are supporting the society.

This list will be distributed among the membership to enable them to support those who are supporting the society and its goals.

Another upcoming fund raiser is an antique show, set for late summer. Bill Brook and Joanne Larson are busy recruiting antique dealers to show their wares at the show.

Mel Knirsch is spearheading plans for a summer picnic.

Jaycettes laud Jaycees

Volunteerism is on the rise! A group of young men in the community, who are a vital service organization, still believe in the philosophy that service to humanity is the best work of life.

With economic conditions becoming more strained, our country needs volunteers now more than ever.

The Antioch Jaycettes say thank you to the Antioch Jaycees during U.S. Jaycee Week, Jan. 15-21.

This dynamic group of young men has been active in Antioch for 13 years. Major projects that the organization has completed this year have been Fourth of July, haunted house and Breakfast with Santa.

The Antioch Jaycees have also raised substantial contributions for various state and national projects, such as Camp New Hope.

The Antioch Jaycettes proudly hail the Jaycees for the many accomplishments they have contributed to the Antioch community.

Revamp downtown

Stores to get face-lift soon

by GLORIA DAVIS

The business section on the east and west side of Main St., in downtown Antioch, is in for a face lift.

Mayor Ray Toft has called a meeting, tentatively set for 7:30 p.m., Monday, Jan. 30, at the Antioch Village Hall. The purpose of the meeting is for the village board to gain input on plans for the revitalization of part of Antioch's shopping district.

Toft will appoint a seven-man-committee, four board members and three residents, to spearhead the revamping plans.

With eight empty store fronts presently in the area, stores constantly changing ownership and the crying need for public parking in that location, the village board is embarking on a solution that will bring a business increase to that street.

Vague plans of tearing down some of the older buildings to gain parking room and putting new fascades, plus other needed repairs on the stores are already in the hopper.

Toft gauges the reconstruction will go from the railroad tracks to Toft Ave. on some buildings that are over 35 years old.

Plan new sewer line for Windsor Dr. block

by GLORIA DAVIS

Mayor Ray Toft said that the Antioch Village Board already has gotten a cost estimate on running a new block-and-a-half long sewer line from Windsor Dr. to Main St. where it is badly needed.

The board has already started to hunt for grant money to fund the new sewer line.

"That was just one of the things that the Donahue Report recommended four or five years ago and was never done," said Toft.

"We can do the job in five phases if the availability of money requires," he added.

"The mayor is really showing an interest in our sewage problem, that's more than the previous mayor did," said Ron Klaczak, Windsor Dr., Antioch.

Toft took a look down the manhole at the high water level full of refuse in front of the Klaczak residence, on Saturday, Jan. 7, after Klaczak had complained at the last village board meeting about the damage being done by the sewage constantly backing up into his basement.

Klaczak told the board about the sewer backups that had been common on his property since the home was built in 1947. His family has suffered through the flooding and resulting damage for the last 11 years.

Klaczak has five drains in his basement floor and the sewage comes into the basement through these.

He has installed standing pipes in the drains which were almost filled to the top last weekend. Klaczak is worried that they will probably overflow into the basement when the usual heavy spring flooding comes.

A village crew rodded-out the sewer line coming from the street after Klaczak's complaint to the board. This is only a temporary

Runaway girl in custody of her parents

Within the last few weeks, four Antioch juveniles, all 14 and 15 year-old girls, have been reported as runaways to the Antioch Police Dept.

One of the runaways was picked up in the company of another Lake County teen runaway by the Lake Villa Police in a residence in Lake Villa.

She has been put in the custody of her parents.

Three Antioch teenage girls are still on the missing list at press time.

According to the Antioch Police Dept., runaway teen girls outnumber boys, three to one.

Set chain's ice derby on Petite Lake, Feb. 11-12

The 24th annual Chain O'Lakes Ice Fishing Derby and Winter Festival will have its headquarters on Petite Lake again this year. An added feature this year will be the establishment of two additional registration locations, one on the south-end of Channel Lake and the other on the south-end of Fox Lake (Mineola Bay).

These locations will serve derby ticket and tagged fish ticket sales as well as convenient fish registration points for the hourly fish contest with radio communications between their locations and main headquarters, to determine hourly winners.

This derby is, as in previous years, sponsored jointly by the Northern Illinois Conservation Club and the 885 Civil Club of Lake County and is the largest and most rewarding derby in the state and probably in the Midwest.

Well over $10,000 in prizes will be awarded during the two-day event and tagged fish worth an additional $60,000 will be released in the lakes and available to the lucky anglers that can catch them.

The derby will be held from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 11 and 12.

Those who wish to participate can take Grass Lake Rd. one mile west of Hwy. 59 to Rena Ave, go south on Rena Ave. for three-fourths of a mile to Richmond Ave., then left on Richmond for three blocks to the derby.

Headquarters will be located across from Kempf's Resort in the subdivision park on Petite Lake. Adequate directional signs will be posted.

Events will include: fishing contests, an air show (sky diving and air drops), an ice auger contest, an ice chisel contest, ABC Clowns from the Antioch Moose, an auction at 2 p.m., on Sunday, sack races, an egg throwing contest and family and childrens' games programmed for every hour.

Rotary schedules Antioch's icing

The Antioch Rotary Club has plans to ice up a portion of downtown Antioch. No, it's not a plot to cause injury to shoppers. It's a plan to allow ice skaters to have some fun.

As soon as a few more legalities are taken of, the site of the old Jewel Food Store, on Lake St., will be sprayed with water so an ice skating rink is formed.

Approval finally has been received from the property's owner.

"The problem now is getting everything coordinated," said Michael Passarella, DVM, who is coordinating the project.

The Rotary also is working on keeping the floor of the Lion's pavilion iced up for skating.

Both areas will be sprayed, not flooded, and the temperature must be 10 degrees or under for the process to be successful, Passarella said.

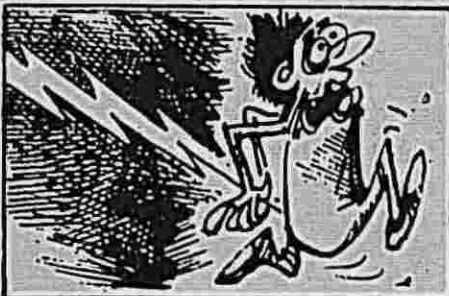

"We need one or two nights of cold weather," he said.

The group also is considering working on what used to be Osmond Pond, on Blackman Ter. Passarella said he saw people skating on what water is left but added that it was very rough and bumpy.

He said the group is considering flooding over "the dirt and stuff" that is the pond floor. Passarella pointed out that this would require more work and water.

But that depends on the weather. He said the projects are on hold until the weather gets cooler.

"It all will get done in due time."

A single flash of lightning has been estimated to carry a charge of 100 million volts.

Lease car thief takes second car

Roger L. Franz, 42, former Antioch resident, listing his present address as Round Lake, failed to appear in Lake County court on Thursday, Jan. 12, to answer charges made by the Antioch Police of car theft.

According to Antioch Police Lt. Tom Fisher, a Lake County warrant has been issued for his arrest for failure to appear in court while on bond, after being arrested last month while in possession of car he had allegedly stolen from National Car Rental at O'Hare Field.

Franz was arrested in Antioch driving the missing 1983 Oldsmobile.

Fisher said that two other warrants for the arrest of Franz have been issued.

Franz is also wanted in Antioch for deceptive practices and in Fox Lake for theft by deception.

Franz allegedly leased a car in Fox Lake three days after being released on bond on the charges of stealing the car from O'Hare Field.

He reportedly used a former address and a void charge card when leasing the 1984 Ford. His and the car's whereabouts are presently unknown.

The negligent driving ordinance that was passed by the Antioch Village Board at its last regular board meeting, concerning driving in an unreasonable or unheeding manner inside the village limits, merely clarifies what already was a violation of village law.

All traffic violations are violations of state traffic laws and have been adopted by village ordinance and made violations of village law.

According to Lt. Tom Fisher of the Antioch Police Dept., a reckless driving charge would be based on willful and wanton intent to break a traffic law.

Giving examples of negligent driving, Fisher cited such traffic offenses as tailgating another vehicle, burning rubber at a stop and then fishtailing the car all over the street as a result, a driver leaning way out of a car door and waving or carrying on a conversation with pedestrians while a vehicle is in motion etc.

"The passing of the ordinance merely serves to clarify a law that we felt needed to be more clearly defined," said Antioch Police Chief Chuck Miller.

This violation, as well as all traffic offenses committed inside the village limits, are prosecuted by Ken Clark, village attorney, with the fine revenue, minus court costs, reverting back to the village.

The new ordinance calls for a fine for each offense of not less than $25 or more than $500.

The Time Machine

When I think about it

You too can be worth $5 million, maybe!

by GLORIA DAVIS

By now, we've all heard about IRA accounts with which a 21-year-old, investing $2,000 per year, starting in 1984, will be a multimillionaire at age 65.

The figures are approximate and are based on an average of 10 percent annual interest. This is also annually tax deductible.

Accordingly, the monetary harvest to be reaped from an investment of $88,000 over a period of 44 years adds up to $5 million say the figures released by financial institutions and insurance companies offering the retirement accounts.

With the average lifespan now at 75 years, or 10 years of retirement, that gives that smart little investor $500,000 per year to live it up with down in Sun City or St. Petersburg.

I know that figures don't lie, but somehow this Dubious Dora finds it hard to believe that Mr. Average Joe, by depriving himself of $170 a month in luxuries, can end-up being a junior Howard Hughes.

For example, this self-sacrifice could feasibly consist of a two-pack-a-day smoker quitting. There's $60 per month to start with.

If this reformed smoker will then cut back on his lunches-out, at approximately $3 per throw, or $15 per working week and brown-bag it at half the price, he will save another $30 a month, taxes and all things considered.

Then he might forgo such things as one night on the town for two, each month, amounting to a minimum of $50. The other $30 per month could come from one more medium-size abstinence or a conglomeration of a few.

My mommy always told me that the only way to make a lot of money was to work at least a 60 hour week so the above still seems too easy to this person that still believes "There ain't no free lunch."

Now of course one question is, with the ongoing disintegration of the buying power of the dollar, one profit consideration might be just how much will $5 million buy in 2036?

Also with the great strides being made in medicine, or if everyone starts eating Dannon Yogurt, maybe the human life span will greatly increase and the average person will live to be 100.

Then the poor dear will have less than $150,000 a year. In the last 35 years, the amount of time that person will then live in retirement, many prices have doubled, some tripled, and some have even escalated more depending on the commodity.

Going on the possibility of prices doubling by 2036, that will mean this wise-old owl will only have the buying power of $75,000 per year for 35 years.

That still ain't bad for a total investment of $88,000.

Of course all that dollar chicanery was just playing with numbers, often trying to mix apples and oranges because of the amount of unknown variables the future most probably holds.

But you notice, try as I did, with less than catotrophic changes taking place, as they always could, the whole thing still would be a better than good deal.

One other way to look at it is that maybe those given-up nights out etc. might have been enjoyed more in the younger years than party nights will be as a senior citizen.

With my luck, I'd sacrifice all that fun for 44 years and either have a fatal heart attack on the eve of my official retirement or be too senile by that time to enjoy the whole thing, judging the way things are already going.

But to you 21-year-olds who decided to invest this way and stick to it for the next 44 years, you have my blessing and good luck wishes. In 2036 I'll even reach down (hopefully not up) and pat you on the back with a well-done, maybe hitting you for a few bucks for a new harp.

Of course, if the whole thing turns out to be a financial pipe dream, you might hear a little "I told you so, you dummy." Who could resist?

Engagements

Thurber—Porzel

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Thurber of Cary, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marlene Louise, to Raymond James Porzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Porzel of Spring Grove.

The future bride is a 1983 graduate of Cary-Grove High School, and is employed as a secretary at Conlon-Collins Ford in Crystal Lake.

The prospective groom is a 1979 graduate of Richmond Burton Community High School, attended McHenry County College, and is presently employed as a mechanic at Conlon-Collins Ford.

A June, 1984 wedding is planned.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

With National Jaycee Week starting now, let's all say thanks to every Jaycee member they see. Like many other Antioch fraternal organizations, the Jaycees mix having a good time while producing a lot of good for our community.

Looks like the Lakes Region Historical Society is really moving ahead in its restoration of the old grade school on Main St..

The upcoming fund raisers sound like they'll bring new fun and culture to the Antioch area.

And who better to oversee the planned antique show but Joanne Larson with her expertise in such matters?

Sorry to hear about the passing of Blanch Shannon who was living at a nursing home in Zion.

It would be nice if we could all put in 100 years of living that was as fruitful as hers.

To a certain former mayor and trustee — believe it or not, no one involved knew whose steps those were! Enough already! There was no malice, a forethought!

Sequoits' defense slips as they bow to ZeeBees

The Antioch High School varsity basketball team put its North Suburban Conference record at 2-4 and its overall record at 5-8, by bowing to Zion-Benton, 63-46, at Zion, on Friday, Jan. 13. Friday the 13th proved to be bad luck for the Sequoits as Zion virtually blew them off the court, the first time this has happened this season.

The ZeeBees outrebounded the Sequoits, 46-26, beating them badly on the boards.

Antioch had 20 turnovers and Zion 16, most of these were in the last quarter when it was too late for Antioch to catch-up.

Don Korjenek and John Humphreys were high scorers for the Sequoits, with 10 points each, barely getting into the double figures.

Tony Gebauer had eight and Dan Berkiel was held to seven points.

"We let the whole thing get out of hand and let one man, Bobby Worthington, beat us," said Sequoit Coach Don Zeman, adding that this never should have happened.

Zeman blamed defensive problems and lack of adjustment to Worthington's game as the main causes for Antioch's defeat.

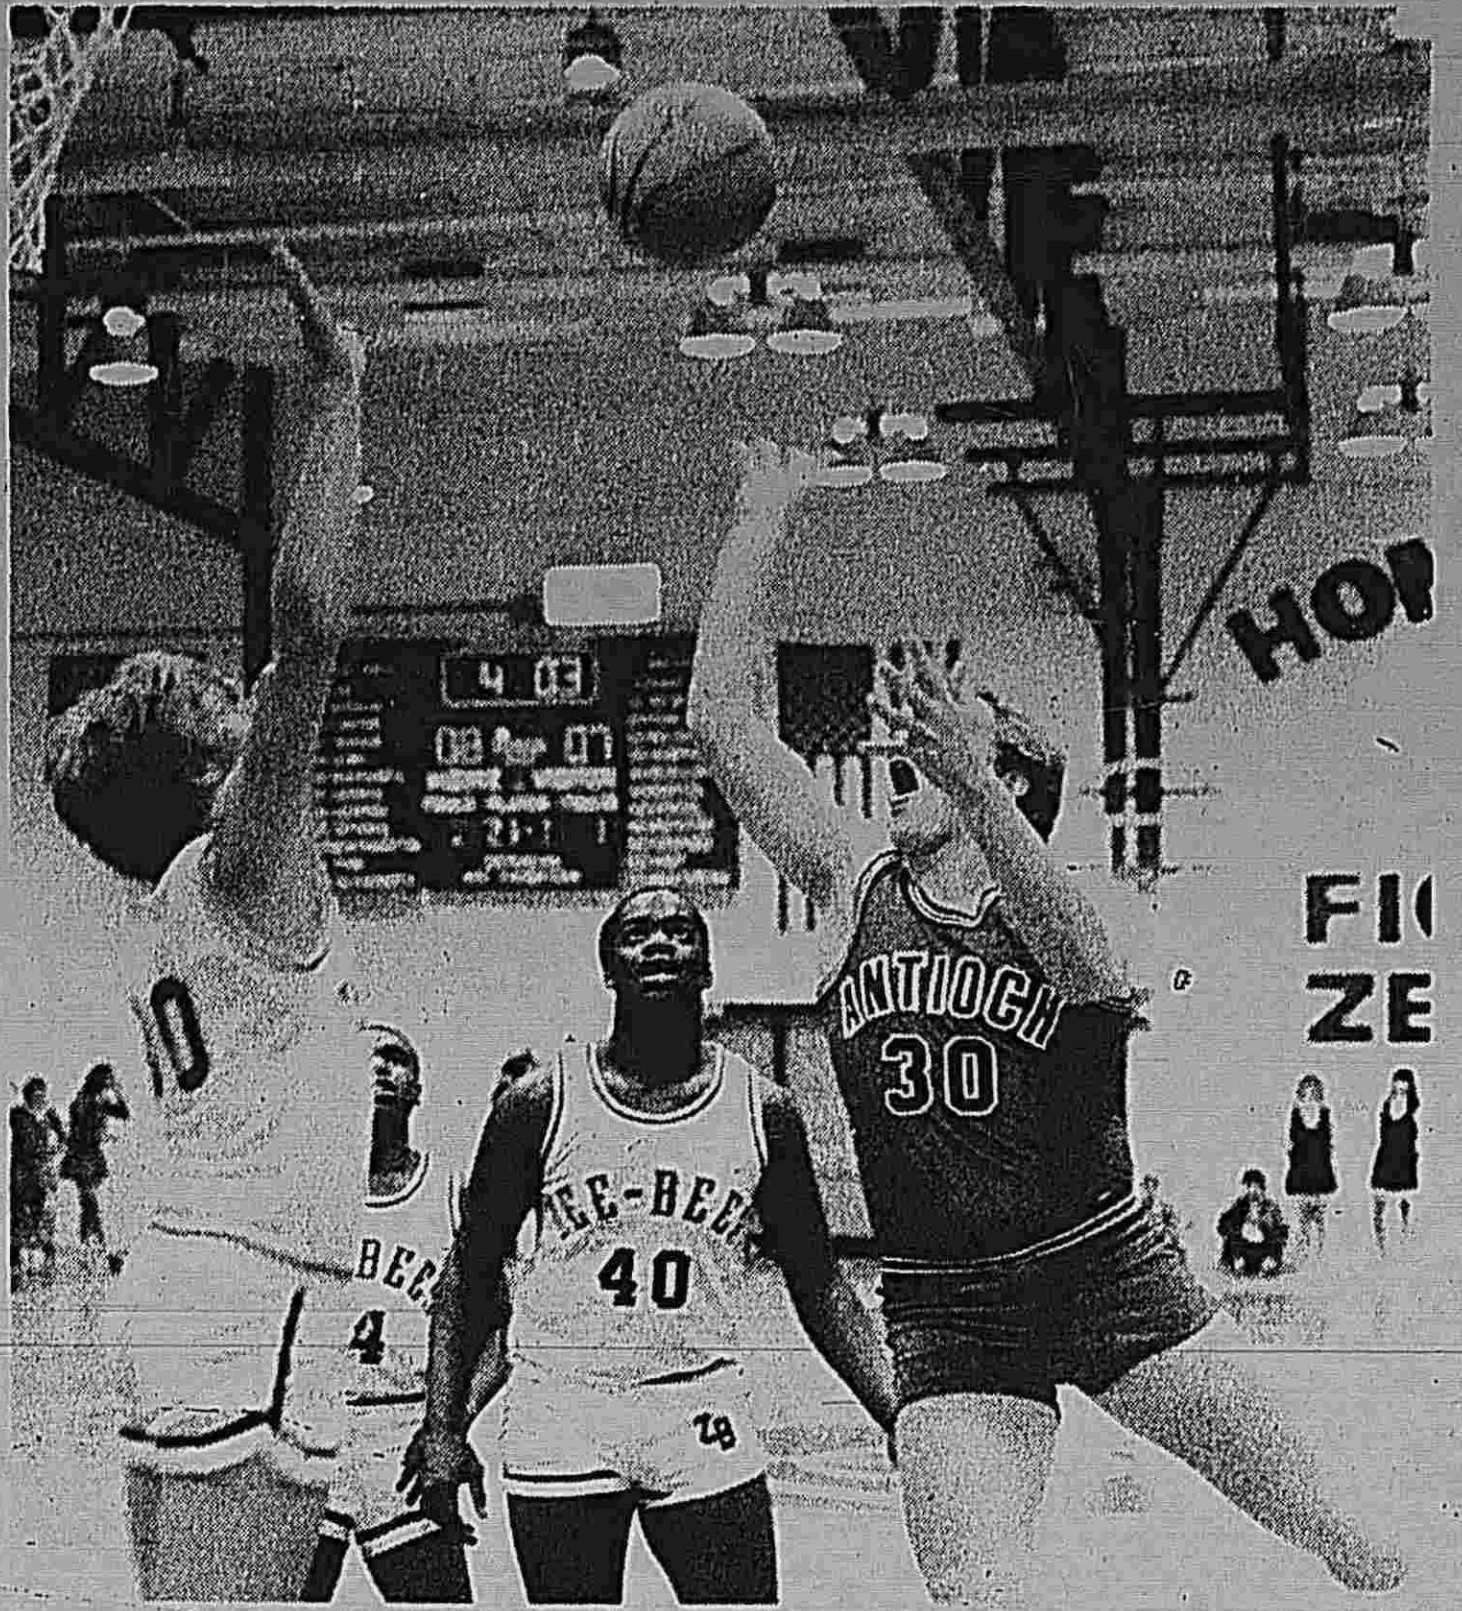

Antioch is set for a busy cage weekend as they get ready to face undefeated Warren, at Warren, on Friday, Jan. 20, and Stevenson, at home, on Saturday, Jan. 21.

"We'll have to do a better job against John Grom then we did against Worthington," said Zeman, expecting the Sequoits to have their hands full with Warren.

Mike Rodbro is the high scoring Patriot that the Sequoits will have to watch besides a few others that have been scoring in double figures.

solution since Todd Maplethorpe, head of the streets department, claims that the clay pipes are broken in many spots and growth and garbage that enters the pipe through the breaks continually stop them up.

Maplethorpe said that his department tried lowering mini-tv cameras to spot the problem but all the refuse in the pipes stopped the camera from getting a good view of pipeline.

Klaczak is presently satisfied that the board is investigating and trying to find a solution for the problem.

Although basement flooding in Antioch is not an uncommon problem for various reasons, and many complain that the sewer pipes are too small in diameter, Maplethorpe said that they are all the regulation size.

The group also plans to have activities for teenagers and education programs for the general public, especially parents and teens.

The group also is planning a large informational meeting for 7:30 p.m. Feb. 1 at the high school. The group hopes to show an informational film and sponsor a speaker for the meeting.

Solid Waste Committee zeros in on options

The Lake County Solid Waste Advisory Committee (SWAC) will meet at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Jan. 25 at the Libertyville Township Hall to discuss options and factors involved in planning for the future disposal of Lake County's waste.

Four different options have been outlined as a means of handling the county's waste for the next 20 years. They include:

—One incinerator serving the entire county with an estimated construction cost of $126 million;

—A smaller incinerator serving the higher population density areas of the county and continued landfilling for the remainder of the county's waste at an estimate construction cost of $92.5 million;

—Three smaller sized incinerators serving the entire county at an estimated construction cost of $119 million;

—Continued landfilling of all county waste at an estimated construction cost of $33 million.

The planning consultant, Metcalf and Eddy, has recommended selecting option one with a single large incinerator, saying it "offers the best long-term solution at the least short term risk."

They note that while there are initial economic advantages with landfilling, in the long term, economics will swing in favor of a combination landfilling and resource recovery incineration within the county.

Public meetings have been held in each Lake County Board district to obtain feedback on what factors should be used by the SWAC to select the most appropriate option.

Siting criteria, ownership and financing will be discussed by the committee and at public meetings in the near future.

40% of our customers actually believe we work hard to keep gas costs as low as possible.

They're 100% right.

One of the pleasant surprises we found, in our recent survey of our customers' attitudes, was that a sizeable percentage of our customers believe that we do work hard to keep gas costs as low as possible.

And they're absolutely right.

In fact, they probably don't realize how right they are.

Because the fact is, according to a commonly used measure of efficiency, Northern Illinois Gas is one of the most efficiently run natural gas utilities in the entire U.S.

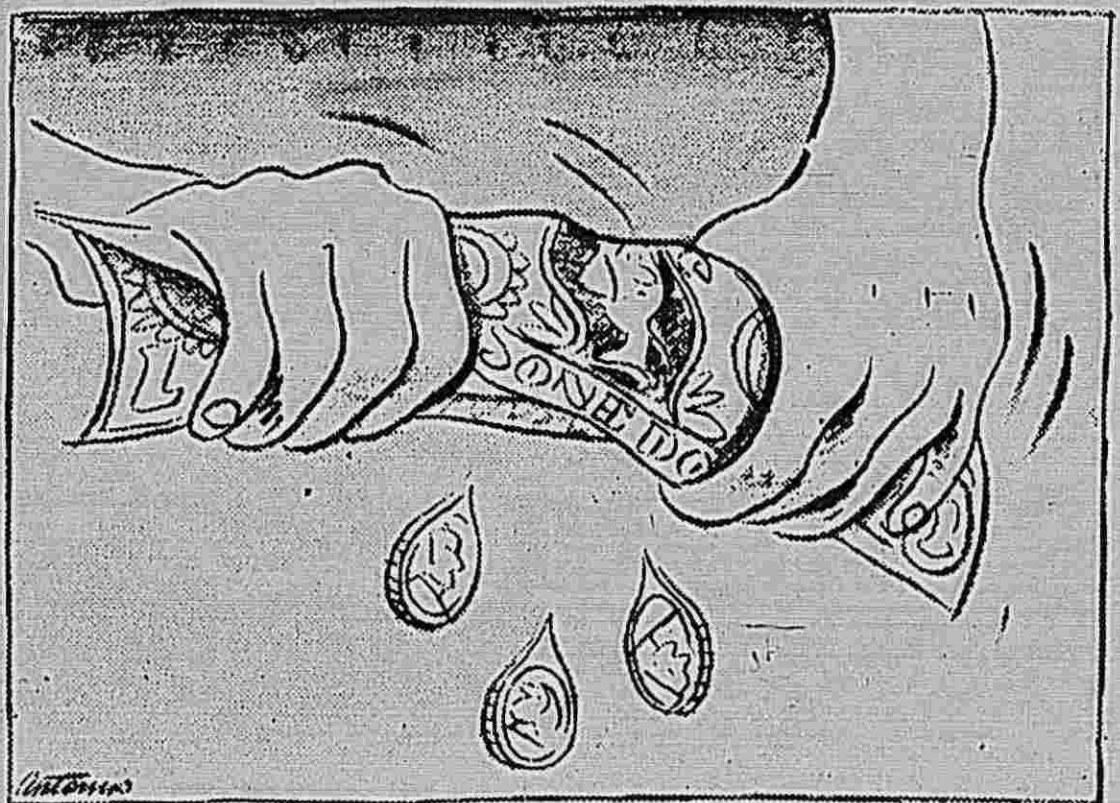

In effect, each of our employees takes care of 580 customers. And that 580-to-1 ratio of customers served per employee is the highest of any major gas utility in the country.

How do we achieve that record?

By streamlining our operations wherever possible.

From billing to controlling the flow of gas from our suppliers, we make extensive use of computers.

Our estimated billing system allows us to read our customers' meters only every other month, thereby saving extra meter reader wages required when meters are read monthly.

We're also at the forefront of innovations to reduce other operating costs. For example, our fleet of company cars and service vehicles is being modified so that it can run on compressed natural gas, which is considerably less expensive than gasoline.

All in all, we can fairly say we don't just work hard to keep costs down, we work as hard as any utility we know of.

And that continuous effort helps minimize the price our customers pay for natural gas, which will be the subject of the next ad in this series.

BLEEDING GUMS

Q. Are bleeding gums a sure sign of pyorrhea?

A. Bleeding gums are only a sign that something is not quite right. That "something" may not be serious at all. For example, you may simply be brushing your teeth the wrong way, or gums may be sensitized from your learning how to floss correctly, or from hormonal changes due to pregnancy.

On the other hand, if the bleeding gums stem from gingivitis or pyorrhea, your dentist can tell you what may be causing this and how to stop it. If you have gum-bleeding in combination with other symptoms such as persistent bad breath, loosening of teeth, puffy or red gums, or shifting teeth, then it is imperative that your dentist or a qualified periodontist for treatment.

If you haven't already, you'll be getting two letters from the IEAA. The Illinois Energy Audits Association.

The first letter will be an announcement. About a two-year Energy Audit program for all the homes in Illinois.

The second will be an invitation. To sign up for it when the IEAA crew is in your area.

If you do, you'll receive an appointment with a conservation specialist who'll inspect your home—top to bottom, inside and out. And show you ways you can make it energy-efficient.

Better yet, he'll tell you which ones are easy to make. And which aren't. Which'll pay for themselves fairly soon. And which won't. So you can pick the ones that are really worth doing.

He'll even give you a list of state-approved contractors. But that's as far as it goes. You're under no obligation to do anything.

As for the cost of the audit, it's only $15.

Those received by Friday usually will appear in the following issue, but may, at times, be delayed for one week. Announcements which appear months after a wedding usually are the result of lengthy waits for photographs from your wedding photographer. Lakeland Newspapers suggests that arrangements be made to have black and white photos made up immediately after the wedding for the newspaper. It is advisable to have the wedding form filled out prior to the wedding for the newspaper.

Phyllis Bucar

State Senator Adeline J. Geo-Karis (R-Zion) in a continuing effort to keep an open channel with her constituents of the 31st Senatorial (Legislative) District, announces the opening of additional senatorial offices in Antioch and Lake Villa Townships to help serve the western end of her district. The Antioch office, located at the south end entrance of the Antioch Village Hall, 880 Main St. will be open from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The mailing address is P.O. Box 172, Antioch, Ill. 60002, telephone (312) 395-3100.

The Lake Villa office will be in the Lake Villa Township Building at 37908 North Fairfield Rd. (near Grand Ave.) Lake Villa, and will be open from 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The Senator's eastern office, located at 2776 Sheridan Rd., Zion, is staffed by Senior Senatorial Aide, Katherine Nicketakis, of Waukegan, and the Assistant Senatorial Aide, Ms. Judy Smith of Zion. The eastern office will serve the citizens of Shields Township who are in the 31st District.

The western offices will be officially opened on Monday, January 23, at 10 a.m. in Antioch and at 2:30 p.m. in the Lake Villa office.

"Thanks to the fine cooperation of the Mayor and other Village officials of Antioch, and the Supervisor and other Township officials of Lake Villa Township, we have been able to obtain the necessary office space to better serve the public; and I am also very fortunate to have such a fine staff in all three senatorial offices to assist me in my senatorial duties," stated Senator Geo-Karis.
